

Letters to the Library

Describe yourself in a sentence or two, for example your age and occupation (or, if you do not have one, what you like to do). What is your household like?

I go to parker farms school as a distance learner and take ballet classes. I also have two cats, Omalley and Lilly.

What is your day to day routine like now? What has changed? What has not changed?

I get up later because I don't have to get on the bus for school and also take distance ballet classes.

What precautions have you taken against the virus? How have you prepared? Were there any difficulties (shortages, high prices etc.)?

I don't think we have had too many problems, just social distancing and going out less often.

What have been the biggest challenges for you during this time?

Not being able to see my friend and no trips and only seeing family virtually.

How have you stayed busy?

I have been writing a book, (The clause of power) drawing often, playing outside and with my cats.

Have there been any positives to this situation?

I've been spending more time with my immediate family and cleaning more/having more time for projects.

What local Wallingford places/businesses do you miss most?

Cafe Ra.

How have you stayed social while social distancing?

Weekly zoom meets with my family and window visits.

What is the first thing you are doing when things go back to normal?

Visiting my family and going on a vacation/big trip.

How did you celebrate the Holidays? Did you see family in person, digitally, or not at all?

We zoomed with our entire family on Xmas and a small valentine's day celebration.

How will you be celebrating Wallingford's 350th Jubilee? If you were here for the 325th Jubilee, do you have any memories you would like to share?

I did'nt know there was the 350th but by reading a lot of books!

What do you miss most about the Wallingford Public Library? What is the first thing you will be doing when you can come back into the building?

I'll walk around the shelves and see what's new. And I love the smell of the library!!